

Media and Public Acknowledgement Requirements

QRRRF Queensland Resilience and Risk Reduction Fund

All recipients of Queensland Resilience and Risk Reduction Fund (QRRRF) funding must adhere to the QRRRF Media and Public Acknowledgement Requirements.

All QRRRF-related media releases, planned events, social media, public notices or signage must be approved by Queensland Reconstruction Authority (QRA). For more information, or for approval of material, please email media@qra.qld.gov.au.

Public acknowledgement of Commonwealth/State assistance

- The announcement of any QRRRF project details must be through a joint media release, or other joint announcement, unless otherwise agreed by the State and Commonwealth.
- The recipient of QRRRF funding must give the State and Commonwealth the opportunity to participate in any publicity activities.
- When referring to a measure under the QRRRF, it must be described as “jointly funded by the Commonwealth and Queensland Governments under the Queensland Resilience and Risk Reduction Fund (QRRRF)”.
- Recipients must reach prior agreement with the Queensland Government on the nature and content of any subsequent events, announcements, promotional material or publicity relating to any assistance measures.
- The hashtag #QRRRF has been created to promote QRRRF activities across the state. Please feel free to use this across social media platforms, once your posts have been approved by QRA.

Signage requirements

- Wording: Proudly funded by the Commonwealth and Queensland Governments through the Queensland Resilience and Risk Reduction Fund.
- Logos: Please use the Commonwealth Government logo on the left hand side, Queensland Government logo in the middle, and your organisation logo on the right.
- Approval: All QRRRF signage must be approved by the Queensland Government (i.e. QRA) and the Commonwealth Government – please email media@qra.qld.gov.au for approval of your proof.

Please be mindful that failure to seek approval of QRRRF-related material may breach the program’s funding requirements.
